

To visualize your data using Kibana integrated into Logsenne, you have to click on the Kibana 4 button next to the application's name, from the Logsenne tab of your account.

Once you're there, you can customize your dashboard to do all kinds of searches and visualizations to your data.

If you want even more flexibility, you can install Kibana locally and point it to Logsenne.